

Negligence.

1) What is negligence (what are the elements of negligence)?
2) What did Donoghue v Stevenson (1932) create? Make references to any legal principles and precedent.
3) What are the three Caparo limbs? Provide a case example for each one.
4) Which case created the so-called 'Crown immunity'?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Bourhill v Young (1942)</li> <li>b) Hill v Chief Constable of West Yorkshire (1990)</li> <li>c) Kent v Griffiths (2000)</li> <li>d) Haley v London Electricity Board (1964)</li> </ul>
5) What is the test for proving that a breach of duty exists? Use case examples in support of your answer.

Negligence.

6) Who decides who is a 'reasonable man'?
7) List all the risk factors with a case example accompanying each one.
8) Compare the factual causation of criminal law with the one of negligence (ultimately civil law).
9) Compare the legal causation of criminal law with the one of negligence ('remoteness of damage' ultimately in civil law).	